Note by the French Government

The Greek Ministry of Finance, by its Circuler of 10 November 1951, taken in pursuance of the Legislative Decree of 20 April 1351, has instituter a special tax on certain imported articles, a list of which is attached, and by a decision तated 27 November 1951 has established a $100 \%$ ad valorem taz on certain cotton threads.

The French Government considers that such taxes, which in practice constitute customs surtares, are contrary th the provisions of Article III of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade. The French Government therefore requests that the Greek Government be inviteit to eliminate such taxes.

Furthermore, the majority of items contained in the list attached were bound hy the Greek Government, and are included in Scheतule XXIV to the General Agreement.
