Communication from the European Community

The following communication, dated 12 February 1993, has been received from the Permanent Mission of the European Community.

With reference to the request made on 2 February 1993 by the Community for Consultations under Article 3 of the GATT Subsidies Code, my authorities have asked me to communicate to you the following clarification:

The Community reserved its rights to raise any other issues concerning these cases during the consultations.

We hereby inform you that the Community would also like these consultations to cover the preliminary injury and causality findings in these cases.
