REPORT OF THE PANEL ON URUGUAYAN RECOURSE TO ARTICLE XXIII

Corrigendum

1. The first paragraph should read as follows:

"(b) However, the Panel considers that, in respect of the State trading and tariff preferences mentioned above, having regard to the nature of the measures and the interest which Uruguay has in the products in question, there are a priori grounds for assuming that they could have an adverse effect on Uruguay's exports. In this connexion the Panel recalled the provisions of Article XXIII pursuant to which the Government of Canada would no doubt accord sympathetic consideration to any concrete representations which Uruguay might wish to make concerning the State-trading measures, or their administration, with a view to minimizing any such adverse effects. The Panel is of the view that bearing in mind the basic objectives of the General Agreement, the Government of Canada would also no doubt accord due consideration to any proposals in respect of tariff preferences that might be made by Uruguay in the context of the CONTRACTING PARTIES' tariff reduction activities or discussions relevant to the reduction of customs tariffs."

2. The third paragraph should now be deleted.
